

Dr.Z.ROBERTKENNEDY born in the year 1967, obtained B.E. degree in Mechanical Engineering from Government College of Engineering, Tirunelveli, Master of Engineering from Annamalai University, Chidambaram and Ph.D from Bharathiyar University, Coimbatore.

Dr. Kennedy has over 24 years of multifaceted professional experience including Research and Technology Development. He has a rich teaching and administrative experience. He has served at different cadres in Karunya University both in academic administration and research from 1992 to 2010. During his long association with Karunya University Dr. Kennedy has served with complete dedication in multiple roles and successfully represented the interests of the Karunya University as Deputy Registrar (Student affairs), Associate Professor (Research & Development) and Member, Board of Studies. He was instrumental in building a centre for Biomass Energy and Thermal Sciences at Karunya University. He coordinated projects of national importance in Biomass energy and Thermal Sciences and contributed several research papers in prestigious journals and conferences at both national & international levels in the area of gasification, Pyrolysis, Methanization and Bio-diesel. He has also organized many workshops and conferences and has been the member of many professional bodies.

Dr.Kennedy is the recipient of Sir Rajendranath Mookerjee Memorial award instituted by Institution of Engineers India for the year 2010.

He was the principal investigator of Heat pipe assisted heat flux measurement system a sponsored research project (Rs.20lakhs) of BRNS in the year 2008.

He has been serving Principal of Engineering Colleges for more than 4 years.